

First Placement Survival Guide

Practical help for arriving prepared, communicating clearly, staying safe and looking after yourself on your first shifts.

General knowledge only. This resource is provided for general study support and revision. Always follow your university's curriculum, your practice assessment document, and the local policies of the NHS Trust or placement provider you are working in. If our content conflicts with local policy or your supervising registered clinician, local policy and your supervisor win.

No responsibility accepted. Nightingale Notes accepts no responsibility or liability for any decision, act or omission made in reliance on this material, and no credit is claimed for any academic or clinical performance. To the fullest extent permitted by UK law, all warranties are excluded.

Independent · Not affiliated. Nightingale Notes is an independent educational publisher. We are not affiliated with, endorsed by, or connected to the Nursing and Midwifery Council (NMC), the National Health Service (NHS), any UK university, or any NHS Trust.